The College is exempt from income tax under section 149 of the Income Tax Act. The College, with campuses located in Fredericton, Miramichi, Moncton, Saint John, St. Andrews and Woodstock, is responsible for enhancing the economic and social wellbeing of the Province of New Brunswick (“Province”) by addressing the occupational training requirements of the population and of the labour market of the Province.  The College is, primarily, a service organization and this is reflected in the fact that approximately 75% of its annual expenses are salaries and benefits. The College’s preliminary review of supply chain activities indicates that it is the ‘importer of record’ for approximately 165 transactions totaling approximately $95,000 on annual spending of $126 Million (representing less than 1/10th of a percentage). Having met the additional criteria of 1) having a place of business in Canada as well as 2) at least $20 Million in assets; 3) at least $40 Million in revenue and 3) an average of at least 250 employees, NBCC has met the criteria of ‘entity’ prescribed by the Forced Labour and Child Labour in Supply Chains Act (May 11, 2023).</li> </ul>

POLICY STATEMENT

NBCC values leadership with integrity and demonstrates that by taking pride in its collective accountability. All Employees are expected to be accountable for their actions and must exercise due diligence in the procurement of goods (and/or services) for which there is a risk of forced labour and child labour within the relevant supply chain so as to promote public confidence and trust in the College.

PURPOSE

NBCC acknowledges the risk that a supply chain may involve the use of unknown members of its supply chain reliant on forced labour and/or child labour.

This policy outlines NBCC's commitment to accountability and provides guidance regarding how the College will demonstrate its commitment to combat forced labour and child labour within its supply chains. More specifically this policy outlines scope of applicability, relevant definitions, as well as measures proposed to combat forced labour and child labour within NBCC's supply chains.

SCOPE AND LIMITATIONS

2.0 IMPLEMENTATION

2.1 Measures to combat Forced Labour and Child Labour

- 2.1.1 Supply chains need to be continually evaluated in accordance with NBCC’s Enterprise Risk Management Framework against the risk of Forced Labour and Child Labour and mitigation activities put in place to minimize that risk.
- 2.1.2 Suppliers and/or supply chains representing risk of Forced Labour and Child Labour shall be reviewed by NBCC.
- 2.1.3 Process shall be put in place to ensure appropriate due diligence is carried out in relation to forced Forced Labour and Child Labour which may include evaluating human rights in a sector or country, the type of sector in which a service provider operates, the countries from which services are provided, the nature of relationships with suppliers, and the complexity of supply chain(s).
- 2.1.4 NBCC’s standard procurement and contract policies, procedures and documentation shall address Forced Labour and Child Labour as part of due diligence conducted prior to entering into business relationships as well as any reviews, renewals and/or continuation of existing business relationships currently in place.
- 2.1.5 NBCC shall develop or otherwise procure training for employees (including but not limited to Finance department employees) participating in College procurement activity with regard to Forced Labour and Child Labour. This training shall be completed on a timely basis in order to conduct procurement activity on behalf of the College.

2.2 Measures to combat the employment of underaged individuals

- 2.2.1 During the application and pre-screening phase of the application and selection process, the candidate will be required to confirm that they are over the age of 16.
- 2.2.2 NBCC's employment documents shall include a mandatory section where applicants must provide proof of their date of birth. Acceptable documents include, but are not limited to, birth certificates, passports, or government-issued identification.
- 2.2.3 NBCC's People and Culture division will conduct semi-annual audits of employee records to ensure compliance with age-related employment laws. These will be conducted in conjunction with random audits to further ensure compliance and deter any potential violations.
- 2.2.4 NBCC will maintain accurate and up-to-date records of all age verification documents in a secure and confidential manner, in accordance with NBCC's retention schedule.

3.0 REPORTING

NBCC College Community Members including Employees or Partners may raise any concerns about the College's role in combatting Forced Labour and/or Child Labour in the manner prescribed by NBCC's Protected Disclosure \(4140\) policy.

4.0 INTERPRETATION

Questions or concerns about the interpretation or application of this policy and/or related procedures may be directed to the Director of Finance or Vice President Finance and Administration.
